

Positioning Older Children for Toothbrushing

- Place older children in a position that allows you to see inside their mouth, and that is safe for the child.
- While you are sitting or standing, have the child back into you and lean their head back.